

BLUE RIDGE LONGHORN 2021 SALE

APRIL 9-10 | LLANO, TEXAS

'21

Welcome to the 2021 Blue Ridge Longhorn Sale

A warm Texas greeting to everyone! I am delighted to welcome you to our annual Blue Ridge Sale. After a trying year full of unique turmoil, Bubba and I want this year's sale to be a respite from the uncertainty and travail-to celebrate Longhorn breeders everywhere, their grit and dedication. To that end, we have particularly stressed two principal themes this year: [1] celebration and [2] increasingly excellent consignments. To the food, fellowship, music and fun we want to add a celebratory spirit and a salute to the determination that has driven Longhorn people to persevere and excel in the face of an unprecedented pandemic and threat to the national health and economy.

As always, a sincere word of appreciation goes out to all who help make this sale happen, especially our generous supporters and all who consign with us or volunteer their time and energy. Special thanks are due, of course, to my fellow traveler, friend and superior ranch manager, Bubba Bollier, who is absolutely essential to the ranch and this event. Bubba and I have once again labored to be good hosts, and will be offering the usual unparalleled array of eats, drink, enhanced decorations and lively music in a relaxed, ranch based atmosphere. We are enthusiastic about newcomers to the Longhorn world and extend a particular welcome to those who are attending for the first time.

We want our annual sale to help create a market for these marvelous cattle; you honor us and support that goal with your participation. So bring your best, dig deep, bid well and often, and have a great time!

Most Sincerely,

John

From the West, approach Llano on Highway 29 and turn right onto Highway 16 at the major intersection, coming all the way through town.

From the South via State highway 71, turn left at the intersection with Highway 16.

All proceeds go to a special charity near to John's heart: the PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE hospital visitation ministry of which John is the Board Chairman and has been for several years. This great ministry provides some 135 trained lay chaplains who visit patients and their families in 60 different hospitals and healthcare centers in Texas, Georgia and now four different foreign countries. POP has been faithfully serving patient needs for 47 years and has grown enormously in recent years, despite the steady drop-off in financial gifts from churches, particularly since COVID became a huge threat.

John first became involved with POP before his wife's ultimately terminal cancer grew severe. During the first of many hospitalizations for chemotherapy treatment a POP lay chaplain visited the Marshalls in Betsy's hospital room, and a genuine friendship quickly formed. Over the ensuing months this chaplain continued visits, and the three even shared lunch on several occasions when Betsy was in between chemotherapy and radiation sessions. During the latter stages of Betsy's illness John and the chaplain spent many hard hours during extended late hour conversations, sharing their faith and support. In deep gratitude, John joined the governing board of the ministry even before his wife's passing, and now almost ten years later he is honored to give back to the ministry with his time, energy and gifts.

Anyone who has ever languished ill in a hospital or had family hospitalized can confirm the loneliness and fear that can accompany hospitalization, particularly for serious illness or surgery. This ministry is there for thousands of patients and their families who need comfort, understanding and support, and it blesses not only patients and their families, but all who serve them as well. From the lay chaplains who tirelessly and graciously make visits to those in leadership and or who serve on the governing Board, it is a joy to be engaged in the marvelous work of this ministry. But the success and growth of POP has, of course, meant an ever increasing need for financial underwriting in order that visits to the needy can continue. It is with humility and confidence in the generosity of longhorn owners and breeders that this donation lot is offered, and every penny of proceeds from this sale will be gratefully appreciated by all who are privileged to be associated with this great ministry, and most especially your thankful Sale host. Blessings to all!
